

JPL/UNAVCO Network Operations

Collaborative efforts between JPL and UNAVCO support ongoing GPS site activities and data handling operations which provide data to the IGS community. Recent areas of emphasis include:

- Hourly data collection and processing

- Higher Rate data for LEO mission support

- Support of streaming data to enable applications including Global Differential Corrections

- Backup Data Handling Capability

Requirements for these efforts and how they are being met will be described.